ORDER

On further consideration of this court's March 21, 2019, order that denied petitioner Otten's motion for summary reversal and direct all pro se petitioners file either their respective brief and joint appendix or, if appropriate after this court's decision in Friends of McMillan v. District of Columbia Mayor's Agent for Historic Preservation, District of Columbia Office of Planning, 207 A.3d 1155 (D.C. 2019), a motion to dismiss the petitions within 30 days; petitioner Wolkoff's motion for an extension of time to file his brief wherein he states the record is incomplete, the oppositions, and reply thereto; the joint motion to dismiss the petitions for review because petitioners failed to file their briefs and joint appendix, the oppositions, and reply thereto; and the motion of petitioner Wolkoff to file the lodged opposition to the motion to dismiss; and it appearing that this appeal is limited to the order considered by this court in Friends of McMillan v. District of Columbia Mayor's Agent for Historic Preservation, District of Columbia Office of Planning, No. 18-AA-357 (D.C. May 16, 2019); and it further appearing the court denied the petition for rehearing and rehearing en banc in the above case on August 22, 2019, it is ORDERED that petitioner Wolkoff's motion for leave to file the lodged opposition to the motion to dismiss is granted and the lodged document filed. It is

Nos. 18-AA-500 & 18-AA-501

FURTHER ORDERED that petitioner's motion is grant to the extent that petitioners shall, within 30 days from the date of the order, file their brief and joint appendix or the petitions for review will be dismissed. Because this appeal is limited to the order and record in no. 18-AA-357, the record has long been complete. Further, petitioner Wolkoff's pending motion for an extension of time was filed on June 24, 2019; however, no brief has been lodged with the court. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the motion to dismiss is held in abeyance pending further order of the court.
